Chancellor Carolyn “Biddy” Martin

Carolyn “Biddy” Martin sees the challenges facing higher education, but beyond those tests she sees a future rich in opportunity and promise, especially at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Martin, who became the campus’s next chancellor on Sept. 1, 2008 sees a bright future for the campus as the demands of the 21st century call for educational excellence and innovation.

Martin, who served as provost at Cornell University in Ithaca, N.Y., from 2000-08, says UW-Madison plays a key role in educating students for a changing economy, building ties to state residents, and as an engine for the state’s economy.

Prior to becoming Cornell’s provost, Martin spent four years as senior associate dean in Cornell’s Colleges of Arts and Sciences. A professor of German studies and women’s studies, she served as the chair of German studies from 1994-97. Martin knows the Madison campus well, having received her doctorate in German literature at UW-Madison in 1985.

Martin also points out the importance of expanding interdisciplinary study across the campus, traditionally a strength on the UW-Madison campus. It’s that sort of work that has led to the Wisconsin Institute for Discovery and the Morgridge Research Institute, which will bring faculty together to solve complex problems in the biosciences.

UW-Madison’s role in economic development is one that Martin sees as a vital linkage between the state and the university. She hopes to build on UW-Madison’s successes in promoting technology transfer, innovation, entrepreneurship and spurring job growth for the entire state.

In addition to building on the teaching excellence and high quality of research — which at UW-Madison is a $900 million annual enterprise — Martin sees the traditional value of the Wisconsin Idea, that the boundaries of the campus are the boundaries of the state, and beyond.

Martin came to a campus and state that has enjoyed a major turnaround in its athletic fortunes since the late 1980s. She relishes the chance to help build on the Badgers’ on-the-field and classroom excellence.

“Big Ten athletics is in a class by itself,” she says. “UW Athletics is an enormous source of pride for the entire state. It will be important to ensure that the athletics department be run and managed well, that it continues to support student-athletes and works hard to graduate them.”

In recent years, as state budgets have been pinched, diversifying the university’s funding base and raising money from donors has become increasingly important.

Martin says she embraces the chance to spend significant time working with the many supporters of UW-Madison to ensure that it continues to thrive.

Director of Athletics Barry Alvarez

Barry Alvarez is in his sixth year as Director of Athletics at the University of Wisconsin and fourth without the additional title of head football coach. Alvarez served as A.D. and football coach from 2004-05.

Wisconsin has enjoyed remarkable success during Alvarez's tenure at the head of the athletic department, winning a combined 12 team national titles and 21 conference regular-season or tournament crowns since he took over. UW has won multiple national championships in each of the last four years, the longest such streak in school history. There has also been academic success as the 2008-09 year produced the highest cume GPA for student-athletes in recorded history.

Alvarez was appointed in the spring of 2008 as one of the chairs of the NCAA's Football Academic Enhancement Group, which was formed to review and recommend improvements for the APR rating. In addition, he was named "Person of the Year" by the Big Ten Club of Southern California in 2008.

Alvarez guided Wisconsin's football fortunes for 16 seasons (1990-2005). He has been at the forefront of the revival of the Badger athletic program during his entire tenure in Madison. He piloted Wisconsin to three Big Ten and Rose Bowl titles (including back-to-back in 1998-99) en route to becoming the winningest football coach in school history (118-73-4 record).

Alvarez was just the 10th coach in Big Ten history to win 100 games at one conference institution. His 8-3 (.727) record in bowl games with the Badgers is the best in college football history (among coaches with at least 11 bowl appearances). The 2004 AFCA Region 3 Coach of the Year, he also was the 1993 national coach of the year, a two-time (1993 and 1998) Big Ten coach of the year and a finalist for ESPN's coach of the decade (1990s) honor.

Alvarez is a 1969 graduate of the University of Nebraska, where he played linebacker and went on to earn his master's degree. He received a Distinguished Alumnus Award from his alma mater in 2003. Alvarez and his wife, Cindy, are co-campaign chairs in the effort to bring a Gilda's Club (a free support center for families dealing with cancer) to Madison. In addition, Alvarez serves on the Board of Directors of the MACC Fund (Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer).

Alvarez and his wife are the parents of three grown children (daughters Dawn (Mrs. Brad Ferguson) and Stacy (Mrs. Mike Delzer); son Chad). Barry and Cindy are grandparents to Joe and Jake Ferguson; Grace and Jackson Delzer; and Scarlett and Barry John Thomas Alvarez.

Head Coach Bret Bielema

In Bret Bielema's first three seasons as head football coach at Wisconsin the Badgers have qualified for three bowl games and averaged more than nine wins per season.

Under his watch, UW has extended its school-record bowl streak to seven seasons, the second-longest active streak in the Big Ten. Bielema, who served as Wisconsin's defensive coordinator for two seasons before becoming head coach, has helped UW amass a 30-3 record at Camp Randall Stadium in his five years in Madison. That is the fourth-best home record in the country over that span. The Badgers won their first 16 home games under Bielema, the second-longest home winning streak in school history.

The sixth-youngest head coach in NCAA Bowl Subdivision football, Bielema has proven that age is just a number. He has shown that determination, hard work, organization and enthusiasm—all traits Bielema embodies—count the most when sizing up an individual's qualifications.

Wisconsin is 28-11 (.718), including 15-9 (.625) in Big Ten games, during Bielema's brief tenure. In his five seasons on UW's staff, the Badgers are 47-17 (.734), the second-best record in the Big Ten over that span.

In his first two seasons as head coach, Bielema led UW to 21 wins. Only two other men in Big Ten history — Michigan's Fielding Yost (22) and Ohio State's Jim Tressel (21) — have guided their teams to as many as 21 wins in their first two seasons as Big Ten head coaches.

Bielema coached Wisconsin to victories in 17 of his first 18 games. That represents the second-best start to a head coaching career in Big Ten history. Only Michigan's Yost, who went 55-0-1 from 1901-05, had a better beginning to a career.

Wisconsin's success under Bielema has translated to the classroom as well. Nineteen Badgers were named Academic All-Big Ten in 2007, the highest total in school history.

Last year, Bielema guided the Badgers through a midseason slump to qualify for their school-record seventh-consecutive bowl game. UW began the season 3-0, including a road win at No. 21 Fresno State. That was Wisconsin's first road win over a ranked non-conference opponent since 1958. Following that victory, UW lost four-straight games to open the Big Ten season. The Badgers rebounded, however, winning four of their last five regular-season games in order to qualify for the Champs Sports Bowl. Included in that streak was a wild win over rival Minnesota that allowed UW to keep possession of Paul Bunyan's Axe for the fifth-straight season.

Bielema took the Badgers to New Year's Day bowl games in each of his first two campaigns as head coach. In 2007 the Badgers were 9-4 overall and Bielema was a semifinalist for the George Munger Award, given by the Maxwell Football Club to the national coach of the year. The 2007 Badgers fought through key injuries and other forms of adversity to win four of their last five games and earn an invitation to the Outback Bowl in Tampa, Fla. Two Wisconsin players — TE Travis Beckum and K Taylor Mehlhaff — earned All-America honors.

Bielema guided the Badgers to a 12-1 overall record and 7-1 mark in the Big Ten (good for a second-place tie with Michigan) during his rookie year in 2006. Wisconsin capped that record-setting season with a 17-14 win over Arkansas in the 2007 Capital One Bowl. No previous Wisconsin team had won more than 11 games in a season. In addition, Bielema became just the third rookie head coach in NCAA Bowl Subdivision history to pilot his team to 12 victories.

Bielema's efforts were rewarded when he was named the 2006 Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year. Bielema also was named one of five finalists for the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and was a finalist for the 2006 Schutt Sports Division IA Coach of the Year Award.

Wisconsin surprised most observers outside the program by setting school records for overall wins (12) and regular-season victories (11), as well as tying the UW mark for conference victories (seven). The Badgers did it with a defensive unit that ended the 2006 regular season ranked among the top three nationally in pass defense, pass efficiency defense, total defense and scoring defense. And they did it with an offense led by a pair of seniors (@B John Stocco and All-America tackle Joe Thomas), a young but talented offensive line, the Big Ten Freshman of the Year (P.J. Hill) at tailback and an emerging corps of receivers, including John Mackey Award semifinalist Travis Beckum.

Bielema was Wisconsin's defensive coordinator in 2004 and 2005, a period in which the program produced a 19-6 record under former head coach Barry Alvarez. The 2004 Badgers were sixth nationally in scoring defense and ninth in total defense. The 2005 club, which earned Wisconsin's first shutout since 1999, finished its 10-win season with a 24-10 victory over No. 7 Auburn in the 2006 Capital One Bowl; UW limited the high-powered Tigers to just 236 yards of total offense.

During Bielema's two years guiding the Badger defense, two players (DE Erasmus James and DB Jim Leonhard) earned first-team All-America honors and two others (DT Anttaj Hawthorne and DB Scott Starks) were first-team All-Big Ten selections. While coaching the Badgers' linebackers, Bielema developed Mark Zalewski and Dontez Sanders, both of whom earned honorable mention all-conference acclaim.

Bielema was co-defensive coordinator at Kansas State under former head coach Bill Snyder from 2002-03. The Wildcats were 22-6 during Bielema's time there and finished in the top 10 nationally (in both 2002 and 2003) in scoring and total defense. The Wildcats won their first Big 12 title in 2003. Among Bielema's standout players at Kansas State were first-team All-American Josh Buhl, 2003 NFL second-round draft pick Terry Pierce and second-team All-Big 12 selection Bryan Hickman.

Prior to his years at Kansas State, Bielema spent nine seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Iowa, where he worked for head coaches Hayden Fry and Kirk Ferentz. The 1997 Hawkeyes posted three shutouts and ranked No. 4 nationally in scoring defense. Bielema coached Fred Barr (first-team All-Big Ten), Vernon Rollins and Matt Hughes (both honorable mention All-Big Ten) at Iowa.

Head coaches for whom Bielema has worked—Alvarez, Snyder, Ferentz and Fry—have combined to win 559 games and guide their teams to 42 bowl games, so the third-year Badger mentor has learned from some of the best in the business. The last seven teams (2002-08) for which Bielema has coached accumulated a 69-23 record.

Bielema earned four letters (1989-92) after joining the Iowa football program as a walk-on. He earned a scholarship after his first year and was a member of Iowa's 1990 Big Ten championship team. A starter as a junior in 1991, he was a team co-captain as a senior. Bielema signed a free agent contract with the Seattle Seahawks and later completed his playing career with the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League. Bielema has participated in 11 bowl games as a player or coach.

A 1992 graduate of Iowa with a bachelor's degree in marketing, Bielema was born in Prophetstown, Ill., on Jan. 13, 1970.

DelVaughn Alexander Wide Receivers

DelVaughn Alexander is in his third season coaching the Badger wide receivers. He originally joined the program late during the summer of 2007 to take the place of Henry Mason, the team's wide receivers coach who sustained an injury earlier that summer that prevented him from coaching.

Last season Alexander led a young wide receiving corps that showed tremendous improvement throughout the season. The Badgers' top four wide receivers (David Gilreath, Isaac Anderson, Nick Toon and Kyle Jefferson) were either freshmen or sophomores. That quartet combined for 83 catches for 1,252 yards.

Gilreath was an all-purpose threat, recording separate 100-yard rushing and receiving games, and earning second-team All-Big Ten honors. Anderson recorded a 100-yard receiving game and totaled 187 yards in the last three games, while Toon recorded 14 of his 17 catches in the last five games.

Alexander helped guide the Wisconsin wide receivers through numerous challenges in 2007. The Badgers' top two returning receivers—seniors Luke Swan and Paul Hubbard—each missed about half the season at different times due to injuries. The pair of veterans ended up combining for 39 catches and 756 yards. That adversity, however, led to the development of Jefferson as a freshman, who had 26 catches for 412 yards and two TDs. Jefferson's yardage total was the fifth-highest ever for a UW freshman.

Prior to coming to Wisconsin, Alexander had most recently been running backs coach, assistant travel coordinator, assistant special teams coordinator and NCAA rules representative at the University of San Diego. The 2005 San Diego offense was ranked No. 1 in the nation in Division I-AA and won its conference title. Prior to that he was wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at Oregon State during the 2003-04 seasons. Alexander coached first-team all-conference selections in each of his two years with the Beavers.

Alexander coached wide receivers and quarterbacks for three seasons (2000-02) at UNLV. He was passing game coordinator in 2000-01. Alexander-coached players earned first-team All-Mountain West accolades in each of his three years there.

Alexander was also at UNLV for the 1998 season where he coached first-team all-conference choice Lenny Ware before spending 15 months (March 1999 to July 2000) with the San Diego Chargers. Alexander was a senior offensive assistant (running backs) with the Chargers and also had responsibilities with quality control, video analysis, opponent summaries and self scout.

Alexander was a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Southern California, from June 1995 to February 1998.

Alexander lettered in football and track at USC and earned a bachelor's degree in social sciences / history in 1995. He played for two bowl-winning teams (1992 Freedom Bowl and 1994 Cotton Bowl) and has coached for four bowl-winning squads (1996 Rose Bowl, 2000 and 2003 Las Vegas Bowls and 2004 Insight.com Bowl).

A native of Los Angeles, Alexander's family includes his wife, July, and children: Jerome (J.D.), Jalen and Julian.

Bob Bostad Run Game Coordinator / Offensive Line

Bob Bostad (pronounced BO-stad) is in his fourth season as an assistant coach at Wisconsin. He was named run game coordinator in February of 2007 and became the Badgers' offensive line coach in January of 2008 after coaching tight ends his first two seasons.

Last season, Bostad helped guide a running game that averaged a Big Ten-leading 211.2 yards per game, good for 14th in the country. Running backs P.J. Hill and John Clay combined for 2,045 yards and became the first Badger duo to run for at least 800 yards in the same season since 1994. Hill cracked the 1,000-yard plateau for the third-consecutive season.

Bostad's offensive line boasted three seniors that earned All-Big Ten recognition (Kraig Urbik, Andy Kemp and Eric Vanden Heuvel). Urbik was also selected a first-team All-American by ESPN.com.

In 2007 Bostad oversaw a rushing attack that amassed 2,610 yards, an average of 200.8 per game that ranked second in the Big Ten. Hill registered his second consecutive 1,000-yard campaign, while sophomore Lance Smith and freshman Zach Brown combined to rush for 997 yards. In addition, Bostad-coached tight ends Travis Beckum and Garrett Graham were the Badgers' leading receivers. Beckum, who accumulated 982 yards on a school record-tying 75 receptions (both new records for a UW tight end), was a finalist for the John Mackey Award and a first-team All-American. Graham put up 30 catches for 328 yards and four TDs.

Bostad enjoyed a tremendously productive first year at Wisconsin in 2006. UW's top two tight ends – Beckum and Andy Crooks – were unquestionably key components in the team's record-breaking 12-1 campaign. Beckum, who caught five TD passes, was a John Mackey Award semifinalist and earned Walter Camp second-team All-America honors. Crooks, who had 19 catches for 206 yards, added four touchdown grabs and earned UW's Tom Wiesner Award.

Prior to coming to Wisconsin, Bostad coached the offensive line at New Mexico from 1999–2005. Bostad's 2005 offensive line, which paved the way for DonTrell Moore, the Mountain West Conference offensive player of the year and the nation's 10th-leading rusher, featured a pair of first-team all-conference selections, including center Ryan Cook and guard Robert Turner. Cook was a second-round draft choice of the Minnesota Vikings, while tackle Terrance Pennington was a seventh-round pick of the Buffalo Bills. Both players started as rookies.

During Bostad's tenure at New Mexico, 14 Lobo offensive linemen earned all-conference mention, including seven first-team selections (both of those figures are tops in MWC history). Among the players Bostad coached at New Mexico were: tackle Claude Terrell, a third-team A.P. All-American and fourth-round draft choice of the St. Louis Rams (he started as a rookie for the Rams in 2005) and tackle Jason Lenzmeier, who became the first offensive lineman in conference and school history to earn MWC offensive player of the week honors in 2003.

The 2003 Lobos led the MWC in scoring (30.1 ppg) and ranked 11th nationally in rushing average (227 ypg). The 2002 New Mexico line allowed just 17 quarterback sacks in 14 games (352 passing attempts). New Mexico's 2001 club averaged 27.6 points per game, an improvement of more than eight points per contest over the previous year. The Lobos also averaged 376.8 yards per game of total offense in 2001, a jump of 110.2 yards per game over the 2000 campaign.

Bostad was offensive line coach (1997–98) and offensive coordinator (1998) at San Jose State prior to his years at New Mexico. His top player with the Spartans was David Loverne, a first-team All-WAC selection and third-round choice of the New York Jets.

Bostad coached the offensive line at Cal State Northridge in 1995–96 and spent three seasons (1992–94) as an offensive line graduate assistant at Minnesota under head coach Jim Wacker.

Bostad got his coaching start at his alma mater, UW-Stevens Point, where he coached the offensive line from 1990-91.

Bostad graduated from UW-Stevens Point in 1989 with a degree in physical education. He was a four-year starter as a linebacker for the Pointers and earned all-conference mention each year. UW-Stevens Point won 33 games during his career and tied Pacific Lutheran for the NCAA Division III national title in 1987. Bostad earned a master's degree in kinesiology from Minnesota in 1994.

Bostad is a native of Pardeeville, Wis. He and his wife, Cara, have three daughters: Rachel, Bryn and Annika, and a son, John.

Paul Chryst Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks

Paul Chryst is in his fifth consecutive season at Wisconsin and his sixth overall as an assistant coach for the Badgers. Chryst, UW's co-offensive coordinator and tight ends coach in 2005, is now in his fourth year as the program's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Chryst, the Badgers' tight ends coach in 2002, returned to Wisconsin in 2005 and his impact on the UW offense has been undeniable. Wisconsin has averaged more than 30 points per game since the start of the 2005 season. In addition, two quarterbacks—Tyler Donovan and John Stocco—Chryst has coached at Wisconsin rank No. 2 and 3, respectively, in completion percentage and pass efficiency on the Badgers career lists. Wisconsin has compiled a 38-14 (.731) record during Chryst's four seasons at the helm of the offense.

The 2005 Badgers set school records for points scored in a season (446) and for season scoring average (34.3 ppg). UW scored at least 40 points six times in 2005. The Badger passing game was much improved, with Stocco setting school season records for passing yards (2,920), passing TDs (21) and pass completions (197). Running back Brian Calhoun became just the second player in NCAA Division IA history to accumulate 1,500 yards rushing and 500 receiving yards in the same season.

Five players from the 2005 Badger offense were selected in the 2006 NFL Draft and several others were lost to graduation, so Chryst had to rebuild the 2006 offense with a new staff and eight new starters. The result? Chryst helped orchestrate Wisconsin's record 12-win season with an offense that produced: 1) the 10th-highest scoring (29.2 ppg) unit in school history; 2) the second-winniest quarterback in school history (Stocco had 29 victories as Wisconsin's starter), who finished second in every major career passing category at UW; 3) an Outland Trophy winner in OT Joe Thomas; 4) the school record-holder for receptions (61) and receiving yards (903) by a tight end in sophomore Travis Beckum; and 5) P.J. Hill, the Big Ten's leading rusher (1,569 yards) and Freshman of the Year.

In 2007 the Badgers, who led the nation in time of possession (33:44), averaged 29.5 points per game, tied for the eighth-highest scoring average in school history. Wisconsin also averaged 408.8 yards per game of total offense, the fifth-highest figure in program history. Junior All-American and John Mackey Award finalist Travis Beckum broke his own school record for receiving yards by a tight end with 982 and tied the UW record for receptions in a season with 75. Sophomore RB P.J. Hill reached the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the second consecutive season while Donovan ended up throwing for the second-most yards (2,607) in UW history and broke the school record for passes attempted in a season with 333.

Last year the UW offense overcame injuries and a midseason switch at quarterback to still lead the Big Ten in rushing offense. The Badgers' 211.2 yards per game on the ground was their highest average since the 1999 Big Ten championship season. The 399.2 yards of total offense per game was the seventh-best season average in school history and Wisconsin averaged 31.7 points over its last six games.

Chryst was offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Oregon State in 2003-04. He helped the Beavers rank No. 6 nationally in passing yardage per game (328.1). The 2003 Beavers became the first team in NCAA Division I history with a 4,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers. Among the Oregon State stars he coached were RB Ken Simonton, the school's career rushing leader, QB Derek Anderson (now with the Cleveland Browns), who left as the Pac 10's No. 2 career passing leader, RB Steven Jackson (now with St. Louis Rams), a 2004 first-round draft choice, and TE Tim Euhus, a fourth-round pick of Buffalo in 2004 who is now with Arizona.

Chryst came to Wisconsin in 2002 after serving as an assistant coach with the San Diego Chargers.

Previously, Chryst was an assistant coach at Oregon State (1997-98), the Saskatchewan Roughriders (1996), Illinois State (1995), the Ottawa Rough Riders (1994), UW-Platteville (1993) and the World League's San Antonio Riders (1991-92). He was a graduate assistant at West Virginia (1989-90).

Chryst was a three-time football letterwinner at Wisconsin, where he earned a degree in political science in 1988. He added a master's degree in educational administration from West Virginia in 1990. Paul's brother, Rick, was commissioner of the Mid-American Conference for 10 years. Another brother, Geep, is an assistant with the Carolina Panthers. Paul's late father, George, was a longtime head coach at UW-Platteville and a former Badger player and assistant coach.

Chryst and his wife, Robin, have three children: Katy, JoJo and Danny.

Kerry Cooks Defensive Backs

Kerry Cooks is now in his fourth year as defensive backs coach at Wisconsin. The Badger secondary continues to benefit from Cooks' experience both as an All-Big Ten student-athlete and a National Football League player, as well as his increasingly seasoned coaching resume.

Cooks' star pupil last season was cornerback Allen Langford, a first-team All-Big Ten choice and UW's team MVP. Langford was a steady influence, starting all 13 games. Six other players recorded starts at the other three defensive back positions. Among those was sophomore Jay Valai who earned second-team All-Big Ten honors and gained a reputation as one of the conference's hardest hitters in his first year as a starter. Another first-year starter, cornerback Niles Brinkley, led the Badgers and tied for fifth in the Big Ten in interceptions.

Though the Badger secondary encountered injuries and dealt with inexperience in 2007, Cooks kept the unit on track. Sophomore free safety Shane Carter, a consensus honorable mention All-Big Ten pick, led the conference and tied for sixth nationally with seven interceptions in his first season as a starter. Junior Jack Ikegwuonu, a first-team All-Big Ten selection, led the team and tied for third in the Big Ten with 16 passes defended. Langford went down with a season-ending knee injury at Ohio State and was replaced by true freshman Aaron Henry. Henry then injured his knee during bowl preparations, leaving UW without two of its top corners for the Outback Bowl game against Tennessee.

In Cooks' first season at Wisconsin (2006), the Badgers led the nation in pass efficiency defense (84.19 rating) and finished second to Virginia Tech in passing yards allowed per game (138.3) and scoring defense (12.1 ppg). UW also was No. 5 nationally in total defense, allowing just 253.1 yards per contest. The Badgers led the Big Ten in all of those defensive categories. Each of Cooks' four starting defensive backs received postseason recognition from the Big Ten. Ikegwuonu was a first-team all-conference pick, while free safety Roderick Rogers earned second-team All-Big Ten acclaim. Langford and strong safety Joe Stellmacher both were named honorable mention All-Big Ten.

Cooks came to Wisconsin after one year coaching the secondary at Minnesota. The Golden Gophers qualified for the Music City Bowl in 2005, while Cooks' unit allowed opponents to complete just 56.8 percent of their passes (fourth-best in the Big Ten). That figure dropped to 55.3 percent in conference games, tied for second in the league with Penn State.

Prior to his year at Minnesota, Cooks coached defensive backs and assisted on special teams for one season (2004) at Western Illinois. Under Cooks' direction, the Leathernecks limited opponents to a Gateway Conference-best 157.2 passing yards per game, held opponents to the lowest completion percentage (45.4) in the conference and finished second in the league with 17 interceptions.

Cooks began coaching at his high school alma mater, Nimitz High (Texas), in 2003 before joining the staff at Kansas State as a graduate assistant for the 2003 campaign. While at Kansas State, Cooks worked mostly with defensive game plan preparation and assisted with the Wildcats' secondary. Kansas State registered an 11-4 record in 2003 and won a Big 12 title with a defense that was sixth nationally in total defense, eighth in scoring defense, 12th in pass efficiency defense and 17th in rushing defense. The Wildcats earned a trip to the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl after limiting each of their last six opponents to 14 points or less, including Oklahoma, the nation's highest-scoring team.

Cooks was a four-year letterwinner and two-year starter as a strong safety at Iowa from 1994-97. He was a team captain as a senior and earned All-Big Ten honors and a spot in the East-West Shrine Game. ## Dave Doeren Defensive Coordinator / Linebackers

Dave Doeren was promoted to defensive coordinator in January of 2008 after spending his first two seasons at Wisconsin as the Badgers' co-defensive coordinator, linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator. He continues to coach the UW linebackers.

Last year, in his first season as defensive coordinator, the Badgers ranked fourth in the Big Ten in total defense. Seven Badger defenders earned All-Big Ten mention and two UW players, defensive end Matt Shaughnessy and linebacker DeAndre Levy, were drafted in the third round of the 2009 NFL Draft. First-year starting middle linebacker Jaevry McFadden led the Badgers in tackles under the tutelage of Doeren.

Wisconsin compiled a 21-5 mark in Doeren's first two seasons in Madison and the Badger defense played a significant role in that success. Doeren coached Wisconsin's leading tackler in each of those campaigns, including Mark Zalewski in 2006 and Jonathan Casillas in 2007. Both players were team captains and both earned honorable mention All-Big Ten acclaim. The Badgers are 22-2 during Doeren's three seasons when they take a lead into the fourth quarter and 20-1 when they allow 20 points or less.

Wisconsin led the nation in pass efficiency defense (84.19 rating) in 2006 and finished second to Virginia Tech in passing yards allowed per game (138.3) and scoring defense (12.1 ppg). UW also was No. 5 nationally in total defense, allowing just 253.1 yards per contest. The Badgers led the Big Ten in all of those defensive categories. Zalewski (a senior in 2006), a two-time team captain, led the Badgers with 90 tackles and earned honorable mention All-Big Ten acclaim. Casillas earned honorable mention All-Big Ten kudos and led UW with 12.5 tackles for loss in 2006. DeAndre Levy, an Academic All-Big Ten honoree, paced the Badgers with six quarterback sacks.

Doeren has risen quickly through the college coaching ranks. He was the linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Kansas from 2002-05 and was promoted in the summer of 2005 to co-defensive coordinator. The Jayhawks, who routed Houston, 42-13, in the 2005 Fort Worth Bowl, led the Big 12 Conference and ranked No. 3 nationally in rushing defense (83.3 ypg) in '05. Kansas also was No. 2 in the Big 12 and 11th nationally in total defense (303.3 ypg). KU linebacker Nick Reid was a two-time, first-team All-Big 12 selection, a third-team A.P. All-American and was the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year in 2005. Three other Jayhawk linebackers (Banks Floodman, Kevin Kane—current UW graduate assistant - and Brandon Perkins) were named honorable mention All-Big 12 in 2005.

Doeren went to Kansas after spending two seasons as the secondary coach (as well as one season as recruiting coordinator) at Montana. The Grizzlies won the NCAA Division I-AA title in 2001. Doeren coached seven all-conference defensive backs at Montana, including two who earned All-America honors. The Grizzlies were 28-3 with two conference championships during Doeren's two seasons.

Prior to his time at Montana, Doeren was a two-year (1998-99) graduate assistant at Southern California. The 1998 Trojans led the nation in interceptions with 24 (including five that were returned for TDs). USC led the nation in turnover margin in 1999 and was second nationally in interceptions with 21 (including five returned for TDs).

Charlie Partridge Defensive Line

Charlie Partridge is in his second season as the defensive line and specialists coach at UW.

In his first year at UW, Partridge led a veteran line. The three senior starters, Matt Shaughnessy, Mike Newkirk and Jason Chapman, all earned All-Big Ten mention while junior O'Brien Schofield, in his first season as a starter at defensive end, tied for the team lead in sacks.

Partridge also worked with the Badgers' kickers last year, both of whom were in their first seasons. Redshirt freshman Philip Welch earned first-team Freshman All-America honors as a kicker, making 20 of his 24 field goal attempts. Punter Brad Nortman averaged 41.8

yards per punt which was fifth-best among freshmen punters in the country.

Partridge, an assistant at Pittsburgh for five years, coached the defensive line for his first four seasons there before switching to linebackers in 2007. He had special teams coaching responsibilities for the last three seasons, including the last two as special teams coordinator for the Panthers.

Pittsburgh ranked No. 5 nationally and led the Big East in total defense last season, allowing just 297.7 yards per game. In addition, the Panthers led their conference and were No. 3 in pass defense, surrendering only 167.3 yards per game. Pittsburgh was fourth in the Big East with nearly three QB sacks per contest. The Panthers' signature defensive effort in 2007 came when they shut down high-powered and No. 1-ranked West Virginia in a 13-9 win that eliminated the Mountaineers from national title contention.

Linebacker Scott McKillop led the Panthers with 151 tackles in 2007 and was named first-team All-Big East. Joe Clermond, a defensive lineman whom Partridge had coached at Pitt, was a second-team All-Big East selection in 2007.

Partridge's special teams units flourished at Pittsburgh. In his first season as special teams coordinator (2006), Pitt led the Big East in net punting (37.54 avg.) and kickoff returns (24.14 avg.). Punter Adam Graessle was an All-Big East selection that season and kick returner Lowell Robinson led the conference and finished ninth nationally with a 27.9-yard average. ESPN's 2006 college football "play of the year" selection was a 73-yard punt return for a touchdown by Pitt's Darrelle Revis against West Virginia. Revis was a first-round draft choice of the New York Jets in 2007.

Prior to his years at Pittsburgh, Partridge served as recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach at Eastern Illinois in 2002. Eastern Illinois qualified for the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs that season after sharing the Ohio Valley Conference title.

Joe Rudolph, a two-time first-team All-Big Ten guard at Wisconsin in the early 1990s, is in his second season as tight ends coach at Wisconsin.

In his first year, Rudolph coached a talented group that was decimated by injuries throughout the season but was still a very productive unit. The top four tight ends combined to miss 14 games last year but still accounted for more than 40 percent of the team's receptions and receiving yards.

Travis Beckum, a preseason All-American, was limited to just six games and suffered a season-ending broken leg. Garrett Graham missed two games due to injury but still led the team with 40 catches, 540 yards and five touchdowns. Lance Kendricks was also limited to eight games due to a broken leg. Mickey Turner was the lone tight end to play all 13 games.

Rudolph served as tight ends coach at Nebraska in 2007. He also assisted on all special teams units, overseeing the punt team. Prior to his stint at Nebraska, Rudolph served as the strength coordinator (2006) and the offensive graduate assistant coach (2004-05) at Ohio State. During his time at Ohio State, the Buckeyes played in the 2004 Alamo Bowl, 2006 Fiesta Bowl and 2007 BCS National Championship game.

Rudolph's time as a graduate assistant at OSU was spent working with the offensive line. Four Buckeye offensive linemen earned All-Big Ten recognition during this period: Rob Sims (2005), Nick Mangold (2005), Doug Datish (2006) and T.J. Downing (2006).

Rudolph entered coaching after earning his master's degree in business administration in 2004 from the Tepper School of Business at Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh.

Rudolph played two seasons in the National Football League, earning a roster spot with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1995 before joining the San Francisco 49ers in 1997.

A standout lineman at Wisconsin, Rudolph was a member of head coach Barry Alvarez's first recruiting class at Wisconsin. He went on to earn three letters (1992-94) and help the Badgers to the 1993 Big Ten title and 1994 Rose Bowl victory. Rudolph was a Wisconsin team captain in 1994, a year that ended with a victory in the Hall of Fame Bowl on New Year's Day. A three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection, Rudolph was the team's 1994 Scholastic Award winner and went on to play in the East-West Shrine Game and Senior Bowl. He earned his bachelor's degree in zoology from Wisconsin in 1995.

▶ For the 14th time in the last 16 years UW had a running back gain at least 1,000 yards on the ground. P.J. Hill 1,161 yards for his third consecutive 1,000-yard season.

▶ Freshman John Clay ran for 884 yards giving the Badgers two running backs with at least 800 yards for the first time since 1994 when Terrell Fletcher had 1,476 yards and Brent Moss had 833.

▶ The Badgers ranked third in the Big Ten in total offense, averaging 399.2 yards per game. They just missed averaging 400.0 or more yards of total offense in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1993-94.

Wisconsin 13 Fresno State 10

Sept. 13
Bulldog Stadium
Fresno, Calif.

In it's first road game of the season, Wisconsin edged Fresno State, 13-10, in a battle of top-25 teams in hostile territory. A physical battle for all four quarters, the Badgers and Bulldogs traded blows in the final minutes of the game before an eight-yard run for a first down by Bill Rentmeester sealed the game with just over a minute to play. A touchdown pass from Allan Evridge to TE Garrett Graham late in the first quarter was the only time the Cardinal and White saw the end zone, but two field goals of 38 and 23 yards from Philip Welch gave the Badgers the eventual win. P.J. Hill ran for 112 yards on 26 tough carries, while David Gilreath totaled 140 all-purpose yards, including 109 in the return game. LB DeAndre Levy recorded nine tackles, three TFLs for nine yards and an interception to lead the Badger defense in their third-straight win of the season.

Sept. 27
Michigan Stadium
Ann Arbor, Mich.

After a bye week, the Badgers traveled to legendary Michigan Stadium to face the Wolverines. UW jumped out to a 19-0 lead at halftime, but Michigan rallied for 27 unanswered points in the UW loss. Philip Welch connected on four field goals and QB Allan Evridge hit nine different receivers for a total of 226 yards, but was unable to connect with Isaac Anderson for a two-point conversion that would have tied the game with 13 seconds to play. Sophomore David Gilreath caught his first career touchdown pass to go along with 65 yards on five receptions to lead the Badgers. Wisconsin forced five turnovers, all in the first half, to give itself a nice cushion at the break, but was unable to hold on to the lead in the "Big House."

Wisconsin 36 Cal Poly 35 (OT)

Nov. 22
Camp Randall Stadium
Madison, Wis.

Wisconsin closed out its season and earned its seventh win with a thrilling 36-35 overtime victory over Cal Poly. Philip Welch's extra point in overtime gave the Badgers the win after John Clay scored the game-tying touchdown in the overtime period. The Mustangs jumped out to an early lead on the Badgers, but missed a PAT attempt, allowing UW to close the gap to 20-14 at the half. The Badgers never had the lead in the game until the final horn sounded, but continued to battle and tied the game twice. Thanks to three missed PATs and a missed field goal by the Mustangs, the Badgers found a way to win behind 107 yards and two touchdowns from Clay and two touchdowns and 59 yards from P.J. Hill. David Gilreath had a career-high 125 yards receiving with four catches in the win, while the Badger defense was led by safety Aubrey Pleasant, who tallied a career-high 12 tackles.

Rose Bowl Stadium

PASADENA, Calif. — USC scored the game's only points on a 22-yard pass from Rudy Bukich to Al Carmichael in the Trojans' 7-0 win over Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl.

The Badgers dominated the game from a statistical standpoint, outgaining USC by 120 yards. Led by Alan Ameche's 133 yards rushing, Wisconsin had a 211-48 advantage on the ground. However, both defenses rose to the occasion when necessary.

One of Wisconsin's best scoring chances came in the opening minutes of the third quarter. Ameche broke loose for a 54-yard run as the Badgers got to the USC 21-yard line. On third down, Archie Ray Burks fumbled on an end run and USC recovered.

The Trojans then put together the game-winning drive (73 yards), which ended with Bukich's TD pass. Wisconsin countered with a 13-play, 84-yard drive that ended at the Trojan two-yard line when Jerry Witt was stopped a yard short of a first down on a fake field goal play.

Coach Ivy Williamson's club was the first in Badger history to play in a bowl game.

PASADENA, Calif. — Washington scored the game's first 17 points en route to a 44-8 Rose Bowl win over Wisconsin.

Washington tallied the first TD on a 6-yard run by Don McKeta 10 minutes into the game. George Fleming booted a 26-yard field goal after the Huskies recovered one of four Wisconsin fumbles. Fleming then returned a punt 53 yards for a score on the final play of the period for a 17-0 Husky lead.

Badger fullback Tom Wiesner tallied Wisconsin's only points on a four-yard run with 5:27 left in the opening half. Dale Hackbart connected with Al Schoonover for a two-point conversion that cut the lead to 17-8. Washington quarterback Bob Schloredt, who shared game MVP honors with Fleming, tossed a 23-yard TD pass to close the first-half scoring. Schloredt completed four passes for 102 yards and rushed for 81 yards.

Wisconsin mounted a challenge in the third quarter, but four plays inside the Husky 10-yard line failed. The Badger defense entered the bowl having allowed barely 10 points per game for the regular season.

PASADENA, Calif. — A 23-point fourth quarter explosion wasn't quite enough as the Badgers dropped a 42-37 Rose Bowl encounter to USC. The Trojans had claimed a 42-14 lead on the first play of the fourth quarter before the Badger rally.

USC had a 21-7 halftime lead and extended it on the first play of the third stanza, before Ron Vander Kelen led one of the biggest charges in bowl history.

Vander Kelen reached paydirt on a 17-yard scamper to reduce the margin to 28-14. USC responded with a pair of touchdown passes by Pete Beathard and the Trojans led 42-14. Lou Holland (13-yard run) and Gary Kroner (four-yard reception) tallied for the Badgers within three minutes. A bad snap on a punt resulted in a UW safety. After the free kick, Vander Kelen hit three straight passes, including a 19-yard score to Pat Richter for the final 42-37 margin.

Vander Kelen, the game MVP, set both school and Rose Bowl records with 401 yards passing. Richter caught 11 of those aerials for 163 yards. The 79 total points scored was a Rose Bowl record that stood for 28 years.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Tennessee scored 18 straight points in the first half and held on to defeat Wisconsin 28-21 in the Garden State Bowl.

The Badger defense limited UT to 89 yards rushing, but Volunteer QB Steve Alatorre unleashed a potent passing attack. Alatorre threw for 315 yards. WR Anthony Hancock caught 11 passes for 196 yards.

After Fuad Reveiz booted a field goal in the first quarter, Wisconsin assumed its only lead of the game on a three-yard run by Jess Cole. Willie Gault returned the ensuing kick-off 87 yards to give Tennessee a lead it never lost. Reserve quarterback Randy Wright came off the bench to throw a pair of second-half touchdown passes for the Badgers. Wright hit Jeff Nault and Thad McFadden on scoring tosses in the final period.

The game featured two high-powered offenses that combined for 49 points, 793 total yards and 49 first downs.

Wisconsin's fourth bowl in school history and first non-Rose Bowl drew a crowd of 53,220.

SHREVEPORT, La. — Wisconsin won its first bowl game with a 14-3 decision over Kansas State in the Independence Bowl.

Randy Wright threw a game-record two TD passes and the Badger defense set a scoring record before 24,684 fans. The anticipated crowd was more than 49,000, but a 23-mile-per-hour wind dropped temperatures to 10 degrees below zero. Wright, the game's offensive MVP, completed nine of 24 throws.

However, his 87-yard pass play to Tim Stracka was the longest in UW and Independence Bowl history. The Wisconsin defense limited Kansas State to 192 total yards in the Wildcats' first-ever postseason appearance.

KSU had taken a 3-0 lead on Steve Willis' 29-yard field goal before the Badgers scored 14 straight points. Tim Krumrie was the game defensive MVP. He helped limit the Kansas State running attack to less than two yards per carry. Game totals showed five turnovers, 14 punts, 22 completions in 59 attempts (.372) and 14 penalties.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — A fumbled snap on a 26-yard game-winning field goal attempt was the deciding play in Wisconsin's 20-19 loss to Kentucky in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Trailing by a point after the Wildcats' Joe Worley booted a 52-yard field goal with eight minutes left, the Badgers drove inside Kentucky's 20-yard line. Todd Gregoire's field goal with 1:55 left never materialized after holder Bob Kobza dropped the center snap. Gregoire, a freshman, had tied a school record with four field goals earlier in the game.

Wisconsin assumed a 13-0 lead on a pair of Gregoire three pointers and a three-yard TD pass from Mike Howard to Thad McFadden. The Badgers outgained their SEC foe both on the ground and through the air.

However, UW was assessed 13 penalties for 133 yards, both Hall of Fame Bowl records. The Badgers also threw two interceptions. Kentucky, which was making its second straight postseason appearance in Birmingham, had no turnovers.

Rose Bowl Jan. 1, 1994 Rose Bowl Stadium

PASADENA, Calif. — The Wisconsin defense forced six turnovers, while the offense churned out 250 yards rushing as the Badgers downed UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl. It was the Badgers' first-ever New Year's Day bowl victory.

More than 70,000 Badger fans attended the game and provided a distinct home-field advantage in the Bruins' home facility.

Tailback Brent Moss, the Rose Bowl MVP, helped the UW to a 14-3 halftime lead by scoring on a pair of short runs. Moss rushed for 158 yards on 36 carries.

Wisconsin extended its lead to 21-10 when Darrell Bevell provided the game's most unlikely play. On second down from the UCLA 21, Bevell broke containment and weaved his way to the end zone for the game-winning points.

Trailing 21-16, UCLA's final drive made it to the Badger 18-yard line before Wayne Cook was stopped and the clock expired before the Bruins could run another play.

"The win, as much as it was for our players and coaches, was for our fans," said Coach Barry Alvarez. "They supported us all the way."

Hall of Fame Bowl Jan. 2, 1995 Tampa Stadium

TAMPA, Fla. — Senior Terrell Fletcher rushed for a Hall of Fame Bowl-record 241 yards as Wisconsin won its second January bowl game in as many years with a 34-20 triumph over Duke.

Fletcher gained 190 yards and scored two touchdowns in the second half to ice the win. Wisconsin intercepted three passes in the opening half. Jeff Messenger's 19-yard return of one of those pickoffs resulted in the Badgers' first score.

Duke eventually tied the game in the third period before Fletcher took over the contest. Fletcher broke the deadlock with a one-yard run late in the third quarter. Jason Burns extended the margin to 27-13 with an 11-yard reception from Darrell Bevell.

After the Blue Devils cut the margin to seven (27-20) on Robert Baldwin's second score, Fletcher turned a critical third-and-one play into a 49-yard touchdown run to clinch the win.

More than 30,000 fans made the trip to Tampa as UW won its third game in a row and second bowl in two years to close the season 8-3-1.

TUCSON, Ariz. — Freshman tailback Ron Dayne concluded his remarkable rookie season with a 246-yard, three-touchdown performance in Wisconsin's 38-10 win over Utah in the Copper Bowl.

Dayne was named the game's Most Valuable Player. He totalled 152 yards by half-time as the Badgers opened up a commanding 31-3 lead. QB Mike Samuel got the UW on the board with a 38-yard run. After Utah kicked a field goal, Dayne scored (two carries for 77 yards) to give the Badgers a 14-3 lead.

The Utes were driving again when Cyrill Weems intercepted a pass and returned it 82 yards for a TD and a 21-3 bulge. The Badgers' secondary picked off four Mike Fouts passes.

The featured matchup between Dayne and Utah's Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala, the nation's two largest runners, never materialized. The Ute ballcarrier hurt his ankle early in the game.

Badger defensive end Tarek Saleh was game defensive MVP with six tackles, one for a loss, one pass broken up and a blocked field goal. It was the Badgers' third bowl win in four seasons.

TAMPA, Fla. — A potent offense and suffocating defense were on display in Georgia's 33-6 win over the Badgers in the 1998 Outback Bowl.

Buoyed by a game MVP performance from Bulldog QB Mike Bobo (26-28 passing for 235 yards), the Bulldogs scored the game's opening 33 points. UGA completed 89.7 percent of its passes, the best-ever mark vs. a Badger defense.

A 12-yard pass from back-up quarterback Scott Kavanagh to tight end Dague Retzlaff was the Badgers' lone tally.

In a game that featured two of the nation's best runners — Wisconsin's Ron Dayne and Georgia's Robert Edwards — the Bulldog ball-carrier was the most effective. Edwards rushed for 110 yards and, more importantly, scored three TDs.

Georgia's multi-threat receiver Hines Ward caught a bowl-game record 12 passes (122 yards), threw one pass (incomplete) and rushed seven times (for eight yards).

"I don't think we played our best game," Wisconsin Coach Barry Alvarez said. "But I think Georgia had an awful lot to do with that."

PASADENA, Calif. — The 85th Rose Bowl was billed as a battle between Wisconsin's nationally rated defense and UCLA's vaunted offense. In truth, the Badgers' Ron Dayne rambled his way to four touchdowns and the UW defense got a stop in the final minute to earn a hard-fought 38-31 Rose Bowl triumph over the sixth-ranked Bruins.

UCLA's defense struggled to stop Dayne, whose 246 yards rushing were one yard shy of the game record. The Badgers mixed in some timely running (65 yards) and passing (154) from QB Mike Samuel in building a 31-21 lead in the third period.

The Bruins cut the lead to three on Jermaine Lewis' second TD and were driving again when freshman Jamar Fletcher intercepted All-American Cade McNown and returned the pick for a TD.

Once again, UCLA battled back and pulled within 38-31. The Bruins' last drive started on their 46-yard line with 1:42 left. Three incompletions by McNown set up Wendell Bryant's game-clinching sack on fourth down.

More than 55,000 Badger fans enjoyed the school's second Rose Bowl win. Dayne's record-setting performance earned him bowl MVP honors.

PASADENA, Calif. — In what was supposed to be a battle of high-powered offenses, the 86th Rose Bowl game between Wisconsin and Stanford ended up a defensive struggle.

The Badgers, getting a boost from Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne, rallied in the second half for a 17-9 win over the Cardinal. In the process, Wisconsin became the first Big Ten school in history to win the Rose Bowl in back-to-back seasons.

Dayne, whose 64-yard run on the second play of the second half energized the Big Ten champs, gained game MVP honors for the second year in a row. Dayne's stats in his final game as a Badger included 200 yards on 34 carries.

The Badger defense bottled up Stanford's running attack all game and limited the Cardinal to minus five yards rushing (tied for the second-best mark in school history). QB Todd Husak threw for 258 yards, but UW's defense dictated the action for most of the game.

Wisconsin had a 17-9 lead in the second half on TD runs by Dayne and Brooks Bollinger, but it took another defensive stand to clinch the win. Stanford's final drive ended when Husak was sacked on fourth down with just over a minute left.

EL PASO, Texas. — A furious second-half comeback — including big plays on special teams, a turnover from the defense and a balanced offense — contributed to Wisconsin's 21-20 victory over UCLA in the 2000 Sun Bowl.

After falling behind 20-7 with a little more than one-and-a-half quarters left, Michael Bennett turned the momentum with a 54-yard kickoff return. Brooks Bollinger's three-yard TD pass to Chris Chambers brought the Badgers to within 20-14.

On UCLA's next drive, Ben Herbert made a key fourth-down stop on a fake field goal by the Bruins. The Badgers took over on their own 30-yard line and drove for the tying score, a six-yard run by Bennett. Vitaly Pisetsky's conversion was the winning point. The game was far from over.

UCLA had three more possessions, but the Badgers held each time and wrapped up the victory with Jamar Fletcher's interception in the final minute. Bennett was named Special Teams MVP, while UCLA's Freddie Mitchell (9-180) was the game MVP.

Besides Bennett's TD run and Chambers' scoring catch, the Badgers got their other points from Lee Evans (54-yard catch). It was the Badgers' third bowl win over UCLA since 1994.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas — Wisconsin continued its remarkable run of success in bowl games, stunning 14th-ranked Colorado with a come-from-behind 31-28 overtime victory in the Alamo Bowl presented by MasterCard at the Alamodome.

It was the Badgers' seventh bowl win in eight tries.

Mike Allen booted a 37-yard field goal on Wisconsin's first possession of overtime to give the UW the victory. Colorado's Pat Brougham had missed a 45-yard field goal attempt on the Buffaloes' first OT possession.

Brooks Bollinger drove the Badgers 80 yards in 10 plays and capped the march with a 1-yard touchdown run with 51 seconds left in regulation to send the game to overtime. During the final regulation drive, the Badgers converted twice on fourth down.

Wisconsin overcame four turnovers by limiting the high-powered Colorado running game to just 123 yards rushing and 200 yards in total offense. Buffs running back Chris Brown, the nation's third-leading rusher, was held to 97 yards on 28 carries.

The Badgers accumulated 356 yards of total offense, including 99 yards rushing from Davis and 82 on the ground from Bollinger. Bollinger was 12-24 passing for 163 yards and two scores.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Auburn scored twice in the final 3:30 to snap a 14-14 tie and defeat Wisconsin 28-14 in the Music City Bowl at the Coliseum.

It was just the second defeat for the Badgers in nine bowl appearances during the Alvarez era.

Jim Sorgi had connected with Lee Evans on a 12-yard touchdown pass with 8:52 remaining. Sorgi then hit Owen Daniels for a two-point conversion that tied the game at 14.

Wisconsin stopped Auburn on the ensuing possession and drove to midfield before Will Herring intercepted a Sorgi pass at the Auburn 13-yard line. The Tigers then marched 87 yards in six plays, culminating in a 2-yard TD run by Ronnie Brown. The Tigers recovered a Sorgi fumble less than a minute later and iced the game on a one-yard TD run by Cadillac Williams.

Auburn took a 7-6 lead at the half and expanded that edge to 14-6 after three quarters before the Badgers knotted the affair midway through the final quarter.

The Tigers held a 197-58 advantage on the ground and a 354-261 edge in total yards. Auburn had three players -- Williams (68), Jason Campbell (67) and Brown (62) -- rush for at least 60 yards. UW's Anthony Davis ran for 77 yards in his most extensive action since the second game of the season.

TAMPA, Fla. — A late rally came up just short as the 16th-ranked Wisconsin football team dropped a hard-fought 24-21 loss to No. 7 Georgia in the Outback Bowl at Raymond James Stadium.

The Bulldogs extended their 10-6 lead early in the third quarter by tallying a pair of touchdowns to make it 24-6 with 6:33 left.

One of those TDs came after David Greene's pass deflected off a Bulldog player and into the hands of fullback Jeremy Thomas, who took it in 24 yards for the score.

Wisconsin countered as John Stocco capped a scoring drive with a 19-yard touchdown pass to Darrin Charles, and linebacker Andy Crooks jumped a screen pass and returned it 11 yards for a touchdown with 4:13 remaining.

Stocco completed a pass to Jonathan Orr for a two-point conversion to pull Wisconsin within 24-21.

That was as close as the Badgers would get, though, as Georgia was able to run out the clock to earn the win.

Wisconsin had 230 yards of total offense, compared to 460 for the Bulldogs. Anthony Davis rushed 21 times for 79 yards for the Badgers to finish his career in fifth place on the Big Ten's all-time rushing list. Stocco completed 12-of-27 passes for 170 yards and one TD.

ORLANDO, Fla. — Junior RB Brian Calhoun rushed for 213 yards and a touchdown, and junior QB John Stocco threw for 301 yards and two scores, as Wisconsin defeated seventh-ranked Auburn 24-10 in the Capital One Bowl at Citrus Bowl Stadium.

The Badgers amassed 548 yards of total offense against a Tigers team that entered the contest allowing just 294.09 yards per game, ninth best nationally. They did it behind Calhoun, who became just the second player in Division I-A history to record 1,500 yards rushing and 500 yards receiving in the same season.

They also did it through the strength, poise and agility of Stocco, who connected with Brandon Williams for 173 yards and one TD. That score moved Stocco to No. 1 on the single-season list for TD passes (20) at Wisconsin.

ORLANDO, Fla. — Wisconsin won its school-record 12th game of the season and the 2007 Capital One Bowl with a 17-14 win over Arkansas at Florida Citrus Bowl Stadium. Quarterback John Stocco, who missed the final two games of the regular season, returned to the field for his final game in a Badger uniform and was named the most valuable player of the game.

Stocco completed 14 of his 34 passing attempts for 206 yards and two touchdowns. He finished second to Darrell Bevell among Wisconsin's all-time leaders in passing yards, pass attempts, pass completions, completion percentage and passing touchdowns.

Stocco hit tight end Travis Beckum five times for 82 yards, including a team-long 29 yard reception, and one touchdown. Paul Hubbard and Luke Swan each pulled in four catches. Hubbard finished with 73 yards receiving and one touchdown.

Defensively, Mark Zalewski led the Badger effort with nine tackles while Joe Stellmacher finished with six and three more players, Zach Hampton, Mike Newkirk and Allen Langford, had five apiece. The Wisconsin defense also intercepted two Razorback passes. Hampton picked off his second career interception while DeAndre Levy recorded his first.

TAMPA, Fla. — Despite keeping Tennessee scoreless in the second half, the Wisconsin football team fell to the Volunteers, 21-17. Returning from an injury, P.J. Hill carried the ball 16 times for 132 yards, while quarterback Tyler Donovan finished with 155 passing yards and two touchdowns (one passing, one rushing).

On its opening drive, Tennessee went 66 yards in nine plays, capping off the possession with a 3-yard touchdown run by Gerald Jones. The Badgers responded on their next drive, culminating in a seven-yard scamper by Donovan. Two UT touchdown passes gave the Vols a 21-7 lead late in the half but the Badgers closed the deficit to seven after an Andy Crooks TD reception with just over a minute remaining.

A Taylor Mehlhaff 27-yard field goal late in the third quarter accounted for the only points of the second half.

ORLANDO, Fla. — Florida State scored 21 points off of three Wisconsin turnovers – two coming on fumble returns for touchdowns – and the Seminoles went on to a 42-13 victory over the Badgers in the Champs Sports Bowl.

The Badgers and Seminoles battled to a scoreless tie until Florida State's Derek Nicholson returned a fumble 75 yards for a touchdown with 12:33 remaining in the second quarter. The Badgers countered with a 31-yard field goal from Philip Welch leaving the Seminoles with a 7-3 lead. But Florida State got a one-handed, 15-yard TD reception from Greg Carr with seven seconds left to give the 'Noles a 14-3 halftime lead.

Welch kicked a 41-yard field goal with 12:01 left in the third quarter to cut the lead to 14-6, but FSU responded with a 16-play, 85-yard scoring drive that consumed 7:43 and was punctuated by a 6-yard TD run from Antone Smith. The Seminoles scored 21 unanswered points after that.

UW running back P.J. Hill rushed for 140 yards to lead the Badger offense.

Two former Badger gridiron stars (Alan Ameche and Pat Richter) have been inducted into the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame.

To gain admittance to the Hall, student-athletes must be former Academic All-Americans who distinguished themselves off the playing field after graduation.

Ameche, who played professionally after graduation, retired in Philadelphia after his career and became one of the city's philanthropic leaders. Richter played pro football in Washington before returning to the UW to earn his law degree. He worked at a Madison law firm and at Oscar Meyer before his appointment as Director of Athletics at the University of Wisconsin.

Overtime Games

Wisconsin has compiled a 4-2 overall record in six overtime games. The Badgers played their first overtime game in 1999 and played four more over the next four years. It would be six seasons before they played in another one. Incidentally, Wisconsin and Illinois played the last NCAA Division IA tie game, a 3-3 deadlock in Madison on Nov. 25, 1995. Overtime was instituted in 1996. Below are descriptions of Wisconsin's five overtime games.

October 9, 1999:

Wisconsin 20, at Minnesota 17

Vitaly Pisetsky kicked a 31-yard field goal in overtime to give Wisconsin a 20-17 victory over the Golden Gophers. Pisetsky had tied the game with a 36-yard field goal with 2:59 remaining in regulation. It was the first overtime game in school history and came with head coach Barry Alvarez resting in the Mayo Clinic after knee surgery. Wisconsin began the OT on defense and shut down Minnesota thanks to 15 yards in penalties and an interception by Jamar Fletcher. The Badger offense then advanced the ball to the Golden Gopher nine-yard line to set up the winning kick.

September 16, 2000:

at Wisconsin 28, Cincinnati 25

Backup tailback Eddie Faulkner scored on a 16-yard run in overtime to give Wisconsin a come-from-behind, 28-25 victory over Cincinnati. Minus five starters due to NCAA-imposed suspensions, the Badgers trailed much of the game before Vitaly Pisetsky's 40-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter tied the game at 13. The Bearcats made it 19-13 on a 51-yard TD pass (PAT no good) before Wisconsin responded with QB Brooks Bollinger's one-yard TD run for a 22-19 edge. UC sent the game to overtime with a field goal at the end of regulation. The Bearcats then took a 25-22 lead in overtime before Faulkner's winning run.

September 23, 2000:

Northwestern 47, at Wisconsin 44 (2 ot)

Wisconsin played its second consecutive overtime game, but dropped a 47-44 shootout in double overtime to visiting Northwestern. RB Michael Bennett carried 48 times for 293 yards, but it wasn't enough to overcome a turnover-free effort by the Wildcats. Kicker Vitaly Pisetsky gave the Badgers a 34-31 lead with 51 seconds left in regulation, but Northwestern took the ensuing possession and got a 46-yard field goal as time expired to send the game to the extra session. Each team scored a touchdown in the first overtime. Wisconsin then settled for a Pisetsky field goal in the second overtime to set up a game-winning, 12-yard run by Damien Anderson.

October 21, 2000:

Purdue 30, at Wisconsin 24

Ashante Woodyard returned a blocked field goal for the game-winning touchdown in overtime as Purdue defeated Wisconsin, 30-24. It was the Badgers' third overtime game of the 2000 season, equalling an NCAA record. Purdue's Craig Terrill blocked Vitaly Pisetsky's 58-yard field goal attempt on the Badgers' first overtime possession and Woodyard scooped up the ball for the score. Wisconsin, behind QB Jim Sorgi (who was making his first career start), had come from behind to tie the game with 3:50 remaining in regulation on a five-yard TD catch by John Sigmund. Purdue won the overtime coin toss and elected to play defense. UW lost 15 yards on three plays, setting up Pisetsky's long-range attempt.

December 28, 2002:

Wisconsin 31, Colorado 28

(Alamo Bowl in San Antonio, Texas)

Mike Allen booted a 37-yard field goal to give Wisconsin a 31-28 upset victory in overtime against 14th-ranked Colorado in the 2002 Alamo Bowl. Allen's game-winning kick came on the Badgers' first overtime possession and after Colorado's Pat Brougham had missed a 45-yard field goal attempt on the Buffs' first OT possession. Quarterback Brooks Bollinger drove the Badgers 80 yards in 10 plays and capped the march with a one-yard touchdown run with 51 seconds left in regulation to send the game to the extra session. During the final regulation drive, the Badgers converted twice on fourth down.

November 22, 2008:

at Wisconsin 36, Cal Poly 35

The Badgers got a 6-yard touchdown run from John Clay and an extra point from Philip Welch in overtime to key a 36-35 victory over Cal Poly. The Mustangs led 29-21 as Wisconsin took over at its own 11-yard line with 4:00 left to play. Dustin Sherer directed a nine-play, 89-yard scoring drive that ended with a 3-yard touchdown run from P.J. Hill with 1:42 left. Hill then scored on a 2-point conversion run to tie the game at 29. The Mustangs had the ball first in OT and scored on a touchdown pass from quarterback Jonathan Dally to Ramses Barden on their first play. Cal Poly's Andrew Gardner then missed the PAT to set up the Badger win.

Badger Football Glossary

Ameche, Alan 'The Horse'

Born in Italy as Lino Dante Ameche, the future Heisman Trophy winner changed his name to Alan at age 16. Lino, in his mind, was not rugged enough. Widely respected for his strength as a youth, he won the light heavyweight Golden Gloves novice boxing championship of Kenosha by default. All of his rivals dropped out after learning Ameche had entered the tournament.

During his college recruitment, he was being heavily pressured to attend Notre Dame by Fred Miller, the philanthropic owner of Milwaukee's Miller Brewing Co. Wisconsin partisans, however, threatened a boycott against the buying and consumption of Miller beer if Ameche attended Notre Dame. Under threat of boycott, Miller backed off and Ameche signed with Wisconsin.

In 1953, when rule changes made it necessary for him to be an all-purpose player, Ameche played defense with such ferocity that he ended up playing 55 minutes or more in each game, prompting a nickname, 'The Iron Horse.' Ameche, drafted by Baltimore, eventually turned down a lucrative offer to join the pro wrestling tour and signed with the Colts. He led the NFL in rushing his first season and was named Rookie of the Year.

Ameche died following heart surgery in 1988 at the age of 55.

Artificial Turf

The artificial turf at Camp Randall Stadium was first installed in 1968 when Wisconsin became the second school in the nation to install Tartan Turf. Designed by the 3M Company, the original turf cost $210,000 and was funded by the UW Parking and Transportation Board in exchange for permission to convert practice fields on the north end of Camp Randall into a 500-car parking lot.

The initial surface turned black in some areas when the green fiber tips broke off, so 3M sprayed the field green for the 1969 season. Camp Randall Stadium's playing surface was replaced prior to Wisconsin's 1998 Big Ten championship season. At the same time, the school replaced the playing surface in the McClain Athletic Center, too.

During the summer of 2003, Wisconsin contracted with FieldTurf to install its product in Camp Randall Stadium and the McClain Center. The FieldTurf product is the playing surface of choice for a number of major college and professional stadiums. The turf includes a sand and ground up rubber base that leads to excellent drainage in wet conditions and a soft, non-abrasive condition to cushion falls. Yardage numerals and hash marks are glued in, and the red endzone names and center Motion W were manufactured according to UW color specs and added in the fall of 2004.

Badger Nickname

The team's nickname, 'Badgers,' was borrowed from the state of Wisconsin. The territory was dubbed the 'Badger State,' not because of animals in the region, but rather an association with lead miners in the 1820s. Prospectors came to the state looking for minerals. Without shelter in the winter, the miners had to 'live like badgers' in tunnels burrowed into hillsides.

Bakken, Jim

Jim Bakken, a former kicker with the St. Louis Cardinals, set a UW record with six field goal attempts vs. Minnesota in 1961. Bakken served as an administrator in the Badger athletic department before his retirement in 2003.

Band caps

When a Badger team wins an athletic contest, members of the band turn their hats around and wear them backwards. The practice started in the 1920s to symbolize the band looking back at the victory in days when they marched out with the departing crowd.

Bucky Badger

Badgers in various forms have been recognized as the school mascot for decades. The version currently known as Bucky, sporting a cardinal and white letter sweater, was first drawn in 1940 by artist Art Evans. At that time, the badger went by names like Benny, Buddy, Bernie, Bobby and Bouncey. Art Lentz, the department's publicity director, had the idea to bring the mascot to life.

The original badger mascot was too vicious to control. On more than one occasion, the live badger escaped handlers before a sideline hero recaptured the animal with a flying tackle. It was decided in the interest of fan and player safety that Wisconsin's mascot be retired to the Madison Zoo. The Badger Yearbook replaced the live badger with a small raccoon named Regdab (badger backwards) and passed it off as a 'badger in a raccoon coat.'

In 1949, a student in the university's art department, Connie Conrad, was commissioned to mold a paper-mache badger head. Gymnast and cheerleader, Bill Sagal, of Plymouth, Wis., was directed by homecoming chair Bill Sachse, to wear the outfit at the homecoming game. A contest was staged to name the popular mascot. The winner was Buckingham U. Badger, or Bucky. The name apparently came from the lyrics in a song which encouraged the football team to 'buck right through that line.'

Bucky Badger has persevered through the years, even surviving a threat by then assistant attorney general, Howard Koop, in 1973. He suggested that Bucky be replaced by Henrietta Holstein, a loveable cow. Koop argued that 'kids love cows. A generation could grow up supporting the university and Henrietta Holstein.' Koop's effort to overthrow Bucky failed.

Bucky even survived a cameo appearance by former Sports Illustrated writer Rick Telander. In preparation for a book about the athletic department, Telander wore Bucky's costume at a '91 volleyball game. Telander overcame 'terminal claustrophobia' in his appearance.

Bud Song

An integral part of any Wisconsin band performance is the playing of the Bud song. The tune is a spinoff of the song 'You've Said It All,' a jingle with words and music originally written by Steve Karmen for Budweiser beer commercials. Copyrighted by Sandlee Publishing Corporation in 1970, the song has become legendary at the University because of its polka-like rhythm. Band director Michael Leckrone said the song's popularity got started at a 1975 hockey game. 'The crowd wanted to hear a polka,' he said. 'I didn't have any polkas. We had, just by accident, this beer commercial in the tunes we play. I told the band if we substituted the word 'Wisconsin' for 'Budweiser' it would work.'

Leckrone said the song became a football tradition after a 1978 come-from-behind victory over Oregon. "Wisconsin was behind by three touchdowns, and the crowd was really dead. I played the song to get everyone pepped up. About 20 seconds after that, Wisconsin scored a TD. I played it again, and Wisconsin scored another touchdown. From then on, the band could never play enough 'Bud,'" said Leckrone.

Colors

The University of Wisconsin Athletic Department's official colors are Cardinal and White. PMS 200 is the designated color of the cardinal.

Fifth Quarter

The Wisconsin band has become nationally famous for its post-game celebration called the Fifth Quarter. Win or lose, fans sing, dance and cheer with the band as they play traditional favorites, like 'On, Wisconsin' and the Bud song. Originally, the post-game concert was designed to give the fans something to listen to on their way out of the stadium, but it developed into a post-game party as the band built in audience participation activities.

Graduating Law Students

At the homecoming game, graduating law students throw canes over the crossbar of the goal post in a pre-game ceremony. If students catch their cane, legend claims they will win their first case. If the cane is dropped, the case will be lost. The custom originated at Harvard and came to the UW-Madison in 1910.

"Hard Rocks"

The 1951 Wisconsin defense, known as the 'Hard Rocks,' led the country in total defense (154.8 per game) and was second in rushing defense (66.8). That defense allowed only 5.9 points per game and actually outscored the opponents 58-53 for the season. The defense was so terrorizing that the athletic department received a letter from one fan asking Wisconsin to 'punt on first down' so he could see more of the defensive platoon.

Eight of the nine seniors on the 'Hard Rocks' scored in their careers. The ninth, Bill Lane, came close. With Indiana backed up deep in its own territory for a punt, the seniors told Lane they would refrain from rushing in order to form a wedge, or 'meatchopper,' for him to run behind and score. Much to the seniors' dismay, freshman Don Voss missed the call and blocked the punt.

After the season, the defensive platoon challenged the offense in a charity game with one interesting twist. The offensive team could have the ball all the time, since the defense felt it could outscore its opponents even without the ball.

Heartland Trophy

The hotly -- and evenly -- contested Wisconsin-Iowa football series was missing just one thing until 2004: a trophy for the annual winner. The Heartland Trophy is the statue of a bull that measures 30 inches tall, 36 inches long and 18 inches deep. It was designed and produced by artist Frank Strub, a former Iowa football player living in Des Moines. "The trophy is a terrific opportunity to further showcase a great Midwestern college football rivalry," said UW Director of Athletics Barry Alvarez. "Playing for the Heartland Trophy adds another dimension to what is already a highly anticipated competition for college football bragging rights." The Badgers and Hawkeyes enter their 2009 matchup deadlocked (41-41-2) after 84 all-time meetings. The trophy currently belongs to Iowa thanks to its 38-16 win in Iowa City last fall.

Hirsch, Elroy "Crazylegs"

Though he only played one season in Madison, Hirsch's legacy grew through 18 years as athletic director and many more as a goodwill ambassador.

Hirsch was first tagged 'Crazylegs' on Sept. 26, 1942, after a 60-yard touchdown run vs. Notre Dame prompted a local writer to say, 'His crazy legs were gyrating.' After leaving Wisconsin, he starred for nine seasons with the Los Angeles Rams.

During those days in L.A., he kept busy by making three movies, including 'Crazylegs, All-American' in which he portrayed himself. After retiring as a player, he worked in the Rams' front office before returning to Madison as athletic director from 1969-1987.

His No. 40, the number he wore at every stop in his football career but one, is retired at Wisconsin. Because of a mandatory league numbering system he wore No. 80 (double-40) for the Chicago Rockets, but had the No. 40 stitched on the inside of his jersey.

Hirsch passed away on Jan. 28, 2004 of natural causes. "There was never a more loved and admired ambassador for Badger Sports than Elroy Hirsch," said Athletic Director Pat Richter. "He loved life, loved people, and loved the Badgers."

Jump Around*

Wisconsin's 31-24 victory over Purdue on October 10, 1998, is memorable mostly for Boilermaker quarterback Drew Brees's NCAA-record 83 passing attempts (and NCAA record-tying 55 completions) and freshman Jamar Fletcher's 52-yard interception return for a touchdown in the third quarter that provided the winning margin. The game is memorable, however, for another reason: it was the beginning of "Jump Around."

Kevin Kluender was in his second year as an assistant marketing director at Wisconsin that fall. Kluender's job at Badger home games was to cue up music and to work in conjunction with public address man Mike Mahnke. That season marked the debut of the "student section race," a mock competition run on the stadium scoreboard in which the letters representing the student sections at Camp Randall Stadium (K, L, M, N, O and P) raced against each other. The race, always run at the end of the third quarter, was usually followed by music that Kluender selected. Ryan Sondrup, a former Badger football player and then volunteer in the athletic marketing office, had (along with some other Badgers) come up with a list of contemporary music to be played in the stadium during games. That evening Kluender chose "Jump Around," a song released in 1992 by a group called House of Pain.

"I remember thinking maybe the students would get into it," Kluender recalled. "I initially turned my back to the field while the song was playing, but I saw people in the press box pointing out to the field. I turned back around and it looked like popcorn popping." Indeed, the student section (which included Sondrup that night) had embraced the song by doing just what it said: jumping around. Since that game against Purdue, fans all over the stadium have taken to jumping to the hip-hop tune. Kluender, however, is not completely comfortable with taking credit for introducing "Jump Around" to Camp Randall Stadium. "The song was already in our computer when I got to Wisconsin," Kluender said. "I'm sure it had been played before. But that Purdue game was the first time we did it in the format that we've maintained over the years."

**The preceding is an excerpt from "Tales From The Wisconsin Badgers," written by Justin Doherty and published in 2005 by Sports Publishing LLC of Champaign, Ill.*

Marek, Billy

The three-time, first-team, all-Big Ten running back wasn't recruited to play high school football because he had Osgood Schlatter disease (a knee ailment that affected teenagers) and didn't play seventh and eighth grade football.

The 5-foot-8 Marek carried the ball only once as a freshman at the UW, then put together three consecutive 1,200-yard seasons. In danger of falling shy of 1,000 yards in 1974 after missing nearly three full games with injuries, Marek rushed for 704 yards in the final three games, including 304 and five touchdowns in a 49-14 rout of Minnesota. His play earned him Sports Illustrated's national offensive back of the week honors.

Marek was at the center of an April Fool's Day joke played by Wisconsin State Journal columnist Tom Butler in 1975. Butler wrote a tongue-in-cheek piece about moving the Big Ten's leading rusher to the defensive secondary for his senior season. The article ended with the phrase, 'April Fools!' Unfortunately, wire service reporters did not make it to the last line, and called head coach John Jardine's house for confirmation. The AP eventually moved the story on its national wire for about a half-an-hour before the hoax was discovered.

Motion "W"

When Barry Alvarez came to Madison, he decided that the helmet logo needed to be updated to signal a new era in Wisconsin football. He entertained 15-20 different designs in 1990 before Rayovac artist Rick Suchanek developed the 'Motion W,' which included a tail at the back of the logo. Alvarez thought the tail was a bit much, but when it was removed, decided to go with it. The University bought the rights to the design, and the logo has been adopted by all other UW sports.

O'Dea, Pat

One of several Wisconsin greats from the pre-modern era of college football is kicker Pat O'Dea. The Australian-born O'Dea came to Madison in 1896 to join his brother Andy, who was crew coach and football trainer. Known as the 'Kangaroo Kicker,' O'Dea brought a different style to the American game of football. He learned to play the Australian game where all punting and drop-kicking was done on the run. O'Dea drop-kicked a legendary 62-yard field goal vs. Northwestern during a heavy blizzard. After his playing days, he coached at Notre Dame and Missouri before moving to San Francisco. O'Dea, who essentially had disappeared, was thought to have joined an Australian contingent which travelled through the country. Press releases surmised that he 'probably lies beneath an unmarked grave in France.'

The truth was, he had moved to California under the assumed name of Charles J. Mitchell, to escape the pressure of being a star ex-athlete. 'Probably, I was wrong,' he said in an interview with San Francisco sportswriter Bill Leiser after the 17-year exile. 'I wanted to get away from my past. As Pat

O'Dea, I seemed very much just an ex-football player. I was very happy as Charles Mitchell for awhile.'

"On, Wisconsin"

The tune was originally composed in 1909 by Chicago's William Purdy, and the words were written by Carl Beck. Purdy and Beck had been fraternity brothers at Hamilton College (Clinton, N.Y.) and were roommates in Chicago. Purdy was going to submit the song for a $100 prize that the University of Minnesota was offering for a new football song. When Beck heard the music, he offered to write words and suggested that Purdy offer it to Wisconsin, where Beck had once studied. The song was an instant hit on campus and spread throughout the world. It was especially popular with military bands.

Some 2,500 schools have adopted the music and changed the words to suit their needs. 'On, Wisconsin' was sung for the first time at the 1909 homecoming game vs. Minnesota.

The music was adapted by current Band Director Michael Leckrone in 1969. The original version had been played virtually unchanged since its inception. 'I got a lot of flak for that,' Leckrone said. 'The old version was one you had to wait on. I wanted to generate immediate crowd reaction, so I stepped it up a bit.'

On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin

Plunge right through that line,
Run the ball clear down the field, boys
Touchdown sure this time
On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Fight on for her fame,
Fight, Fellows, Fight, Fight, Fight
We'll win this game!

Paul Bunyan Axe

The most-played rivalry in Division I football continues this fall when Wisconsin and Minnesota meet. The UW-UM series is the nation's oldest and has been played continuously for since 1890 (except for 1906). The game has alternated sites between the university campuses since 1946. Much prestige was always associated with the game, and the significance was emphasized with its place on the schedule. Between 1933 and 1982, the Wisconsin-Minnesota game was always the final regular-season contest for each school.

The series took an added twist in 1948 when more than state bragging rights were on the line. After a 16-0 setback that season, the Wisconsin lettermen's group, the National 'W' Club, presented Minnesota with an axe wielded by Paul Bunyan. He was the mythical giant of Midwestern lumber camps. Each year since, the winner of the annual battle between the Big Ten rivals is presented with the axe, complete with scores inscribed on the handle, for display on its campus.

Slab of Bacon

The Slab of Bacon trophy was the precursor to Paul Bunyan's Axe as the prize in the Wisconsin-Minnesota football series. Apparently, the trophy was presented to the winning school by a sorority from the losing institution. The trophy was discontinued in the 1940s and was discovered in a storage room at the UW Department of Athletics in 1994. It is currently housed in the football office at Wisconsin. 'We took home the bacon,' Coach Barry Alvarez said, 'and kept it.'

Sculptures

Two of the most significant figures in Wisconsin football history are permanent fixtures in front (Gate 1) of Camp Randall Stadium. Life-size sculptures of former head coach and current Director of Athletics Barry Alvarez and former player and Director of Athletics Pat Richter stand as reminders to all Badger fans of the roles the pair had in turning UW Athletics around during the 1990s. The silicon bronze Alvarez sculpture is six feet, one inch tall and weighs approximately 300 pounds. The sculptor was Lou Cella of Timeless Creations, Inc., who created the piece at The Studio of Rotblatt Amrany in Highwood, Ill. The sculpture of Richter was done by Sean M. Bell, also at The Studio of Rotblatt Amrany.

“Varsity”

The traditional arm-waving at the end of the song, 'Varsity,' was the 1934 brainstorm of band leader Ray Dvorak. He saw Pennsylvania students wave their caps after losing a game. Dvorak later instructed Wisconsin students to salute UW President Glenn Frank after each game.

Var-sity! Var-sity! U-rah-rah! Wisconsin!
Praise to thee we sing
Praise to thee our Alma Mater
U-rah-rah, Wisconsin!

All-Alvarez Team

Late during the 2005 season, as the head coaching career of Wisconsin's Barry Alvarez was winding down, the Capital Times set out to choose an All-Alvarez Team. Ballots were sent out to more than 50 prospective voters, selected to represent a wide range of eras, position groups, experience with and perspective on the program. Voters could choose from an inclusive list of candidates at each position, with a set limit of selections (one tailback, two receivers, three linebackers, etc.) representative of a traditional football lineup. In addition, the ballot included a line for write-ins at every position. To account for an overload of top-notch players at any one position, a wildcard category (in which two additional players could be named to the team) was created. Ballots were tabulated by Capital Times reporter Jim Polzin, who brainstormed the All-Alvarez Team.

Barry Alvarez, 1990-05

Record: 118-73-4 / 65-60-3 Big Ten

Most coaching wins in UW football history ... guided Badgers to three Big Ten (1993, 1998, 1999) and Rose Bowl (1994, 1999, 2000) titles ... just the 10th coach in Big Ten history to win 100 games at one conference institution ... his 8-3 bowl record is best in NCAA history among coaches with at least 11 bowl appearances ... named UW Director of Athletics in 2004 (held dual role for two seasons before retiring from football coaching at end of 2005 season)

Herb Alward, 1891

Record: 3-1-1

Alward was the first coach to win multiple games at UW, as well as the first coach to produce a winning record (.700).

J.A. Barry, 1908-10

Record: 9-4-3 / 5-4-2 Big Ten

Coached the Badgers for three seasons, losing only four games, two of which were to nationally ranked Minnesota. Barry won his first five games as head coach in 1908 before losing the season finale to Chicago on Homecoming.

Milt Bruhn, 1956-66

Record: 52-45-6 / 35-37-5 Big Ten

Bruhn led the Badgers for 11 seasons, earning two conference titles and two Rose Bowl appearances. After winning the 1959 and 1962 Big Ten Championships, Bruhn lost to Washington and USC in the 1960 and 1963 Rose Bowls respectively. Bruhn is the only coach besides Barry Alvarez in UW football history to lead their team to multiple Big Ten titles. Prior to Wisconsin, Bruhn played football on Minnesota's undefeated national title teams of 1934 and 1935. Bruhn also played for the Gopher's 1935 Big Ten Champion baseball team. After graduating in 1935, he coached at Amherst, Minnesota, Colgate and Franklin and Marshall.

John Coatta, 1967-69

Record: 3-26-1 / 3-17-1 Big Ten

Coatta coached the Badgers for three years, winning only three years. He set an NCAA record for most games without a win to start a career with 23. Winless in his first two seasons, Coatta earned his first victory in a 23-17 win over Iowa during the 1969 season.

Frank Crawford, 1892

Record: 4-3-0

Frank Crawford was the program's fourth coach, and came to Wisconsin after coaching the 1891 Michigan football team to a 4-5 record in their first year as a program. After leaving Wisconsin, Crawford went on to coach at Nebraska and Texas. Crawford was a graduate and football player from Yale University.

Art Curtis, 1903-04

Record: 11-6-1 / 0-6-1 Big Ten

In two seasons in charge of the Badger football program, Curtis was winless in conference play going 0-6-1. He won his first five games and went 6-3-1 in his first season, losing only conference games to Chicago, Michigan and Minnesota. Curtis coached at the University of Kansas before coming to Wisconsin in 1903. In 1902 he led the Jayhawks to a 6-4 overall record.

Parke Davis, 1893

Retired Numbers

Elroy Hirsch

Elroy Hirsch played only one season (1942) at UW, but he was one of the most beloved sports figures in school history. Hirsch, nicknamed "Crazylegs," rushed for 786 yards for Wisconsin's 8-1-1 team in 1942. He starred for nine years with the L.A. Rams and later served as UW's Director of Athletics (1969-87).

40

Allan Shafer

The memory of former quarterback Allan Shafer is continued with the "Living Memorial" Scholarship that is given in his name. Shafer was fatally injured during the 1944 Wisconsin-Iowa game. Shafer is one of two Badgers (Jay Seiler is the other) to die from a football-related injury.

Dave Schreiner

Dave Schreiner, the two-time All-America end, was named Western Conference Player of the Year in 1942. Schreiner lettered three years at the UW as an end, both on offense and defense. He is a member of the National Football Foundation and W Club Halls of Fame. He was voted to the UW's all-time team in 1969.

Alan Ameche

Alan Ameche, the 1954 Heisman Trophy winner, was a three-time All-American and ended his career as the NCAA's all-time rushing leader. He led the Badgers to the 1953 Rose Bowl and rushed for 133 yards in that game. The four-time NFL Pro Bowl pick was inducted into the College Hall of Fame in 1975.

Pat Richter

Pat Richter, Wisconsin's last nine-time letterwinner, was a two-time All-America end who led the Badgers to the 1962 Big Ten title and starred in the famed 1963 Rose Bowl. Richter went on to play in the NFL for the Washington Redskins and later, as UW Director of Athletics, led the Department of Athletics through a revival in the 1990s. He is a member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame, the CoSIDA Academic All-American Hall of Fame and is a recipient of the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award.

Ron Dayne

In 2007 Wisconsin officially retired the number of one of college football's most dominant running backs. Ron Dayne (1996-99), the NCAA's all-time leading rusher, totaled 6,397 yards (excluding bowl games) in four seasons at Wisconsin. He won the 1999 Heisman Trophy and was a member of 1999 and 2000 Rose Bowl Championship teams.

Wisconsin and The Polls

The Badgers have been ranked as the nation's No. 1 squad just once in their history. That was on Oct. 7, 1952, after a 20-6 win over Illinois. The Badgers lost the next week to Ohio State but went on to a 6-3-1 record and a Rose Bowl berth.

Camp Randall Stadium

Camp Randall History

The centerpiece of Wisconsin athletics, Camp Randall Stadium has been at the heart of the university since 1917. Home to the Wisconsin Badger football team, the most recent renovation of the stadium was completed in 2005, offering the teams and fans a state of the art football experience.

Harboring the popular bowl shape structure, Camp Randall is one of the nation's oldest and most historic stadiums. Camp Randall is the fourth-oldest stadium among NCAA Bowl Subdivision schools. Only Georgia Tech, Mississippi State and Cincinnati are older. In terms of capacity, the stadium is the 17th-largest in the nation and is the fourth-largest in the Big Ten.

Prior to its use as a football stadium, the land was used for the training of Wisconsin troops during wartime, and was named after Wisconsin's first wartime governor, Alexander W. Randall.

In the early days of the state of Wisconsin, the 50-acre plot bounded by University Avenue, Breese Terrace, Monroe Street and North Randall was owned by the Wisconsin State Agricultural Society. State Fairs, races, and other community events were held where the present day stadium rests. After the Civil War began escalating, the society donated the land to the state to use as a training ground for troops. Soldiers first moved to the area on May 1, 1861.

In the matter of a year, more than 70,000 of the state's troops were trained there at one time or another. In 1862, sick and wounded Confederate soldiers were held at Camp Randall and those that perished were laid to rest on Madison's west side. The area known as "soldier's rest" is the northernmost confederate cemetery in the United States

In 1893 the land was going to be put up for sale for building lots, but the war veterans sounded their voice, and the state legislature purchased the land from a group of Madison business owners for $25,000. The land was immediately turned over to the university. The famous Memorial Arch was constructed in 1911 at the same price that the land was purchased for. The cannons that are still present today were mounted in 1913. During WWI and WWII troops were again stationed at the site for training before being sent abroad to defend the United States.

The local veteran's group proceeded to write a petition to the Wisconsin Board of Regents in hopes to keep the "Camp Randall" title for the field. Their petition was granted and the site was first used for athletic events in 1894 as track and field events took place. The first football game was played at the site the following year.

For the first 20 years of use, the stadium was occupied with rented bleachers on the east and west sides that were able to hold around 3,000 people. There are reports that nearly 15,000 people would regularly attend football games filling in the standing room surrounding the field.

Work began in 1915 after seven years of petitioning to the state legislature in order to receive the necessary funds to construct a permanent football stadium. The work was slow and immediately fell behind schedule. While playing Minnesota during the fall of 1915, the east-side bleachers collapsed and injured hundreds of spectators. The accident caught the attention of the legislature and the new concrete seating was soon under construction.

The first section of seating was built on the hill along Breese Terrace. The hill was used as the foundation for the bleacher section on the west side of the playing surface. The 40 rows of bleachers, seating close to 10,000 fans, were ready in time for the 1917 opener against Beloit. The stadium wasn't officially dedicated until the homecoming game against Minnesota on November 3, 1917. The Badgers beat the Gophers 34-0 in front of a capacity crowd of 10,000 fans.

Over the next seven years, the stadium gradually removed the temporary wooden bleachers and added concrete seats. In 1924, the capacity had reached 33,000 and there were now seats on all four sides of the field.

Over the next 15 years, more and more pieces were added as money became available. In 1940, more seating was installed and the seating capacity had grown to 45,000 with the UW Field House enclosing the south end of the field.

An interesting use of the stadium in the 1940s was the inclusion of dormitories for students and military personnel. The WPA (Works Progress Administration), initiated by President Franklin D. Roosevelt to help pull the nation out of depression, constructed the dorms underneath the east-side bleachers. There was enough room for 150 men to live as well as a rifle range and boxing and wrestling rooms.

The dorms were initially occupied by naval trainees and, after the war, the dorms were occupied by student veterans. The living quarters were named the Schreiner and Baumann houses in honor of two UW students that were killed in Okinawa during WWII. The dorms were closed in 1951 and converted into offices for the extension department and later became the home to the athletic and military departments.

In 1950, plans for adding an additional 10,000 seats began. At the cost of $569,000 the bleachers in the north end were to be raised to the same level as those in the west and east sides. The project took over a year due to material shortages after the war and an extremely harsh winter. The seats were completed in 1951 and the stadium was now able to hold 55,000 people, but was still one of the smallest in the Big Ten.

After near capacity crowds over the next few seasons, the Board of Regents decided to lower the field and add 10,000 more seats. These new seats would eliminate the track and most of the new seats would be placed along the sidelines. By 1958, the $482,000 project was completed and the capacity had increased to 63,710.

The stadium proved adequate during the 1950s and early 1960s. In 1964, the regents decided to add more seating after a number of successful seasons had brought more and more people to the stadium. This time, the plan was to go up. The second deck along the west side was to be constructed with the addition of a press box (freeing up more seats in the bleachers). The project was completed in time for the 1965 season and brought the capacity up to 77,745.

Camp Randall remained virtually untouched for over 35 years until the most recent renovation began in 2001. The $109.5 million project was completed in 2005 raising the capacity to where it currently rests at 80,321.

Recent additions include the premium seating structure above the east side bleachers, the new Kellner Hall office building, the Athletic Operations Building, the football offices, the McGinnis Family Athletic Ticket Office, new visiting team lockers, the Camp Randall Media Room, and renovations and upgrades to the press box.

The new structure on the east side includes 72 suites, 337 club seats and 590 varsity indoor seats. The Communications Center built in 1965 is now remodeled and includes areas for media, game personnel and university department officials and was renamed the Evjue Communications Center after the recent renovation. The Kellner Hall building, which is attached to the east bleachers and the Field House, is home to the Athletic Department and Ticket Office.

Since its inception, Camp Randall has seen three different playing surfaces. From 1917-1989 the surface was a natural grass playing field. In 1990 artificial turf was installed and a computerized scoreboard was added in 1992. During the recent renovation two video replay scoreboards and a new sound system were installed. In 2004, the turf was replaced with the current rubber composite, FieldTurf system.

Camp Randall is one of college football's most storied stadiums with a rich history of service and over 90 years of football. Camp Randall is not solely used by the Wisconsin football team. Since 1982 all WIAA state football championship games have been held at the stadium. Camp Randall has also played host to outdoor concerts, the Drum Corps International, Green Bay Packer exhibition games, and other large public events.

Additionally, Bielema is available every Tuesday from 11:50-noon CT on the Big Ten Teleconference.

Assistant Coach Interviews

Wisconsin assistant coaches are available after practice on Tuesdays (offense) and Wednesdays (defense) in the lower level of the McClain Center. If you wish to arrange a phone interview with an assistant coach during the week, contact Brian Lucas in the Athletic Communications Office at (608) 263-5052.

Player Interviews

Badger players can be interviewed during the week on Tuesdays and Wednesdays after practice (approximately 6 p.m.) in the lower level of the McClain Center outside of the Wisconsin locker room area. Offensive players will be available on Tuesdays and defensive players on Wednesdays.

Phone calls by players to out-of-town media are made at the players' convenience between 7:30-10 p.m. CT on Tuesdays and Wednesdays only. Interviews should be arranged through Karl Anderson of the Athletic Communications Office at (608) 262-8216. Home numbers will not be made available to the media, and players have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted without prior approval from the Athletic Communications staff.

Ordering Phone Lines

Several courtesy phone lines (credit card and collect calls only) on level eight of the press box are available on a first-come, first-served basis for the news media. News organizations requiring their own phones should call Dominic Osterhaus at (608) 265-8546 or email him at do3@athletics.wisc.edu to order lines.

Wireless Access

Wireless access is available, free of charge, to media working inside Camp Randall Stadium (includes the press box and south end zone media room). See Brian Lucas of the athletic communications staff to receive a password.

Credential Guidelines

Requests for 2009 Wisconsin football credentials (print, electronic and parking) must be made online. Contact the Wisconsin Athletic Communications Office for instructions.

Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and reporters on assignment. Credentials must be prominently displayed on the field level. Media cannot work between the 25-yard lines as recommended by the NCAA in its game management manual.

Credentials will be mailed if time permits. Those passes which cannot be mailed will be left at Gate 4 of Camp Randall Stadium (north end of the stadium, adjacent to parking lot 17).

Credentials will be issued according to the following priorities: 1) TV and radio stations originating a live broadcast; 2) national publications, newspapers filing for the following day's publication and news outlets designated by the visiting SID; 3) TV and radio stations covering for nightly news; and 4) other requests, which will be evaluated on a space-available basis. Spouses, friends, non-workers and children are not allowed in the media areas as dictated by the NCAA. Anyone violating these standards will be denied credentials to future games.

Admittance to Camp Randall

All media members (including photographers) must enter Camp Randall Stadium through the Media Entrance at Gate 4 (north end of the stadium, adjacent to parking lot 17). Members of the media will be asked to present a photo ID upon arrival.

Satellite Trucks

For news organizations that send a satellite truck to cover a game at Camp Randall Stadium, please contact Barry Fox (Director of Facilities) prior to arrival. His phone number is (608) 262-3631. Extremely limited parking (for the satellite vehicle only) is available at the southwest corner of the stadium near the Athletic Operations Building. The electrician who can assist with powering up is Ed Walsh (cell: 608-235-8552).

Gameday Services

Media Services

Facilities for the working media are located on the seventh and eighth levels of the press box. Flipcards, notes and game programs are delivered to each working location prior to kickoff. A full statistics packet will be available after the game in the press box. Final packets will be distributed in the McClain Center weight room and media room on the south end of the stadium once they are completed.

Final Statistics Packets

Final game statistics are immediately available after the game at UWBadgers.com. If you would like, a .pdf document of the final stat package can be emailed following the game. UW Athletic Communications will not fax any statistics post-game.

Post-game Interview Procedures

With approximately five minutes left in the game, media members will be escorted to the interview areas by Athletics Communications staff. Bret Bielema holds his post-game media conference on the first floor of the McClain Center. The session is for credentialed news media only. Bielema's media conference is live video streamed on UWBadgers.com.

After Bielema's session, requested Wisconsin players are available for interviews in the McClain Center weight room (lower level). Assistant coaches are not available following games. The Wisconsin locker room is closed to the media.

Big Ten Conference

The Big Ten Conference is an association of 11 world-class universities whose member institutions share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. Intercollegiate athletics has an important place within the mission.

Founded in 1896, the Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics in student-athletes' lives and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness. Big Ten universities provide approximately $94 million in direct financial aid to more than 8,400 men and women student-athletes who compete for 25 championships, 12 for men and 13 for women. Conference institutions sponsor broad-based athletic programs with more than 270 teams.

- Big Ten Universities are members of the nation's only conference whose constituency is entirely composed of institutions that are members of the AAU, a prestigious association of major academic and research institutions in the United States and Canada.

- Big Ten Universities have more than four million living alumni and over 300,000 undergraduate students attending Big Ten universities.

- Big Ten universities house on their campuses 10 of the nation's 35 largest academic libraries. Collectively, conference libraries hold nearly 70 million bound volumes and the institutions work collaboratively to build and share their resources with other league members.

- Over the past two years, the Big Ten has reached a series of milestone media agreements to provide the conference with its greatest television exposure ever, including extensions with CBS (for basketball) and ABC/ESPN (for football, basketball and volleyball) and the creation of the Big Ten Network, a national network devoted to Big Ten athletic and academic programs. The Big Ten Network will operate 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, and is set to launch in August of 2007. It will showcase a wide array of sports as well as original programming produced by conference institutions and represents a 20-year partnership between the Big Ten and Fox. The conference's new media agreements will result in the broadcast of more than 500 events nationally and regionally beginning with the 2007-08 academic year, compared to 300 events in the final year of the previous agreements.

- Since 1992, the Big Ten has created in excess of 2,000 new opportunities for women student-athletes and established 28 new women's teams.

- The NCAA collects two types of graduation rates – the federal graduation rate, which accounts for all entering freshmen who receive aid and graduate within six years, and the Graduation Success Rate (GSR), which reflects the mobility of student-athletes by accounting for transfers. Based on the most recent federal graduation rate average for the 1996-99 entering freshmen classes, Big Ten student-athletes graduated at 71 percent. In comparison, the student body at conference institutions graduated at 73 percent while all Division I student-athletes graduated at 62 percent. The Big Ten's GSR was 82 percent compared (the Division I average was 77 percent).

- The Big Ten recognized 2,018 Academic All-Big Ten honorees during the 2006-07 academic year, the highest total in the last decade. Over the past five years, the Conference has annually acknowledged more than 1,800 student-athletes as Academic All-Conference honorees.

- The Big Ten claimed seven team national championships during the 2006-07 season, just one shy of the conference record of eight national titles established during the 1955-56 campaign, while also finishing as the runner-up in five other sports. The Big Ten has earned at least four national crowns in eight of the last 10 full seasons.

- Big Ten Conference schools are among the national attendance leaders in football, men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball. During 2006-07, more than 8.7 million fans attended Big Ten home contests in those sports.

Big Ten Network

Showcasing a wide array of sports as well as original programming produced by the conference's 11 institutions, the Big Ten Network will operate 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. The Big Ten Network will be made available to all cable and satellite carriers and distributors nationwide. Most events and programs will be produced in High-Definition television (HDTV).

Wisconsin Radio Network

Last spring the University of Wisconsin-Madison and Learfield Sports agreed to a contract extension that grants Learfield Sports certain marketing and multi-media rights with Badger athletics for the next 12 years.

The previous contract was scheduled to run through June 30, 2009. The extension added 10 more years to the agreement.

Learfield Sports' Madison-based staff, which operates under the name Badger Sports Properties (BSP), will continue to manage the corporate sponsorship programs in support of UW Athletics and be responsible for the production and distribution of live radio broadcasts of Badgers sports, as well as coaches shows and more.

Under the terms of the contract extension, Learfield Sports will pay the UW Athletic Department a minimum of $75 million in guaranteed rights payments over the next 12 years.

Among other items included in the extension, Learfield Sports will continue to provide the Athletic Department with a comprehensive package of complimentary radio advertising inventory for use in promoting UW Athletics and will donate $25,000 each year of the contract to fully endow a scholarship in the UW-Madison School of Journalism and Mass Communication.

Learfield Sports has partnered with the University of Wisconsin since 1994, producing annually more than 100 radio broadcasts of Badger football, basketball and hockey games on a statewide network. In 2001, Learfield Sports acquired the multimedia rights creating marketing opportunities beyond radio to include television, venue signage, event impact, retail promotions, corporate hospitality, print and uwbadgers.com.

In addition to Wisconsin, Learfield Sports manages multimedia rights for more than 30 collegiate institutions and associations including other Big Ten Conference members Iowa, Indiana, Minnesota, Purdue and Penn State. The company also manages the marketing partnerships for the Black Coaches Association (BCA) and provides exclusive sports programming to more than 1,000 radio stations throughout the country. Additionally, Team Services, LLC, a Learfield Sports company, specializes in venue naming rights, marketing research and sales consultation.
